St. Supery’s CEO Emma Swain named honorary chairs for the 2021 Collabria Care Gala “Joy - A Week of Celebration”

August 11, 2021; Calistoga, California— Collabria Care, Napa Valley’s hospice and Alzheimer’s resource center, is excited to present its 15th annual benefit gala next month with Emma Swain, CEO of St. Supery Estate Vineyards and Winery, as this year’s honorary chair.

The outdoor gala will take place at Castello di Amorosa on Friday, September 10th and will feature Napa Valley’s finest cuisine and exceptional wines. In addition to the gala, Collabria Care will bring supporters together for a golf tournament at Eagle Vines Golf Club and luncheon hosted by St. Supery, both supporting Collabria Hospice as the benefactor.

After 15 years, the event has become a hallmark of Napa Valley’s fall social season. The evening’s al fresco dining within the castle walls is an experience to remember, culminating in the much-anticipated live auction of 16-18 premium lots of rare wines, fabulous dinners and exclusive travel experiences. During the live auction, guests will be offered an opportunity to raise a paddle and “fund-a-need” in support of the vital work Collabria Care does in our community.

“Collabria Care brings compassionate care to our loved ones, support for our caregivers and those left behind,” says Swain. “Everyone deserves to experience that compassion and dignity to the end of life, and I hope you will join us in ensuring that ongoing support by joining us at one or all of the events and giving to this amazing organization.”

Swain joins an impressive list of former honorary chairs that includes Leslie and Rich Frank, Thomas Keller, Margrit Mondavi, Beth Nickel, Dario Sattui, and two generations of both the Rombauer and the Torres families. The annual benefit gala is the single largest fundraising event the nonprofit agency holds. Gala Chair Lynne Hobaugh, along with her volunteer committee, oversee every detail of the event.

“Collabria Care is one of the most beloved nonprofits in Napa County, having provided end-of-life care for so many in our community. After so long apart, we look forward to bringing together our community for this year's week-long celebration of joy. Our hope is that these gatherings raise more funds than ever to support Collabria's important work in Napa Valley," says Lynne Hobaugh, the 2021 Gala Chair.
